LIQUOR LICENSING RULES AND REGULATIONS

As Moranbah Community Workers Club practices responsible service of alcohol the following rules apply:

Moranbah Community Workers Club Management reserves the right to exclude or remove any person/s from a function in accordance with the liquor Licensing Act. A respectable amount of food needs to be purchased to meet liquor licensing requirements for any private event.

Moranbah Community Workers Club Management reserves the right to refuse admission to any or all other areas of the venue in accordance with the Liquor Licensing Act.

Persons under the age of 18 are not permitted to be on the premises after 10pm unless in a private function room. A parent or guardian must accompany persons under the age of 18 years.

CONDUCT OF EVENT

The organiser agrees to begin its event at the scheduled time and agrees to have its guests, invitees and other persons vacate the designated event space at the closing hour indicated. If the venue has reason to believe that the event or any part of it will affect the smooth running of the venue business, its security or reputation, the management reserves the right to cancel the event or any part of it at its discretion and without notice or liability.

The event shall be conducted in all respects in an orderly and lawful manner and in accordance with current Federal and State legislation. The venue reserves the right to exclude or remove any and all intoxicated, disruptive or minor patrons from the venue premises without liability. If the venue is damaged, any repairs or replacement required as a result of misconduct at your event, this will be the responsibility of the organiser/company name in which the booking has been made and charges will be made towards your master account.

CREDIT CARD POLICY

A transaction fee of 2.15% for AMEX and 3.75% for DINERS cards.

No charges for Visa, Mastercard or EFTPOS transactions.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

CATERING REQUIREMENTS

Final catering numbers must be notified one week prior to the event; food will be charged based on these numbers. There will be no reduction in price due to a decrease in patron numbers subsequent to the one week notice.

Any additional patrons must be advised in advance to ensure catering and rooming requirements are altered in time, these extra guests will be charged at quoted per head price and catered for, however a different menu may be substituted. Under no circumstances is unconsumed food to be removed from the venue. Any itinerary changes must be reported immediately to allow for roster changes and avoid food spoilage.

CHILDREN ATTENDING EVENTS

Children attending events are exempt from the 10:00pm curfew implemented at the venue. However, they must remain in the function room under supervision at all times. In regards to catering, patrons 13 years and over are considered adults for catering purposes and will therefore be charged at full adult prices. Children aged 4-12 years will be charged at half the full adult rate, alternatively a special children's menu can be arranged.

PREVENTING DAMAGE

The patron is financially responsible and agrees to indemnify Moranbah Community Workers Club (ABN 56015254563) , for all damage sustained to the venue and its grounds during an event as an action of invitees and/or guests of the organiser. Although accidents often happen, damage to our function room can be easily prevented by good communication between your organiser and our team when arranging posters and displays.

Additionally, the venue restricts the use of confetti, loose glitter and scatters for decorative purposes. If decorations are required, please contact the functions department to discuss alternative options. If necessary, repair or replacement charges will be passed on to your master account.
